Mr. Harold Weisberg,
Hyattstown, Maryland.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I listen to Jerry Williams show every night.

You mentioned the poor postal service last night. I am sending you a copy of a letter I wrote in 1959. The postal service is worse than poor as it is now. So much is known by people other than me.

The crimes being committed against people by mental hospitals are not known to be true by anyone but me, who is out.

These crimes, including those of the postoffice cause high taxes, and not enough money, and a tax increase is almost a certainty.

The entire story is far more unbelievable than anything connected with the assassination of President Kennedy. If you are interested, I will write you much more.

Sincerely,
Katherine Terrell
